

TEXAS PRIMARY CARE AND HEALTH HOME SUMMIT

Supporting the Quadruple Aim: The Triple Aim of High Value Patient Care and Provider Joy

JUNE 18-19, 2015

MARRIOTT PLAZA SAN ANTONIO

www.texashealthhomesummit.org

Draft Agenda

Thursday, June 18 8:30 AM – 11:30 AM Pre-Summit Sessions
Topic:	Objective:	Speaker(s):
Creating an Adult Health Home	Participants will receive an in-depth overview of the elements of the health home including 2014 NCQA standards	Elaine Skoch, RN, MN
Creating a Pediatric Health Home	Attendees will receive an in-depth overview of the elements of the pediatric health home as well as review examples of successful pediatric health homes	Carl Tapia, MD Cynthia Peacock, MD Heidi Schwarzwald, MD
Integrating Behavioral Health Into Primary Care	Participants will understand basic approaches to integrating primary care and behavioral health services in any setting and will be introduced to tools to achieve integration	Ken Minkoff, MD

Presented by:

Texas Medical Home Initiative & Texas Health Institute

Accountable Care Organizations: What They Are and How They Work	Participants will learn the definition and elements of accountable care organizations and will be presented with examples of successful ACOs	Moderator: Tom Banning Melissa Gerdes, MD James Walton, DO Kurt Frederick, MD
12:00 PM-1:30 PM Luncheon Keynote: Revitalizing Primary Care: All Hands on Deck!	Participants will understand the importance of building effective teams in primary care and how primary care can be advanced through clinical innovation	Andrew Morris-Singer, MD
1:45 PM-2:45 PM Breakout Sessions
Value-Based Contracting: What Physicians and their Practices Need to Know	Participants will learn what value based contracting means and how it differs from fee-for-service contracting; participants will learn how to move toward value-based contracting in their practices	Jamie Dudensing, moderator Bob Morrow, MD BCBSTX Harvey Balthaser, MD UHC Anas Daghestani, MD Daniel Crowe, MD
Update on the 1115 Texas Healthcare Transformation Waiver: Patient-Centered Medical Home/Health Home Projects	Participants will gain knowledge about 1115 waiver programs that are reporting positive results in bringing services patient-centered medical home/health home services to Medicaid beneficiaries and under- and uninsured Texans	Moderator: Ken Shine, MD, MACP Cynthia Judice, MD Anna O'Connell
New Practice Models: Pediatric Practice without Walls and the Medical Village	Participants will learn how practices can aggregate to share services, personnel and other functions to maximize their effectiveness	Scott Schams, MD
Improving Medication Adherence: Practical Tools and Methods	Participants will understand why some patients do not take the medications as prescribed by their physicians and will gain tools to improve medication adherence and disease management	Marie Brown, MD, FACP

The Importance of Data Analytics in Physician Practice	Participants will gain knowledge of the importance of using data analytics to improve patient outcomes.	James L. (Larry) Holly, MD
The Role of National Standards for Systems of Care for CYSHCN in Improving Quality of Care and Access to Medical Homes (session only held from 1:45-2:45, will not repeat)	Session attendees will be able to describe the ideal components of an effective system of care for CYSHCN; 2. Session attendees will be able to use the National Standards for Systems of Care for CYSHCN to identify critical elements for pediatric medical/health homes; 3. Summit participants will be able to identify ways in which standards regarding medical home are relevant and applicable to their work and/or experience with systems of care.	Meredith Pyle
3:00 PM – 4:00 PM Breakout Session Repeat
4:30 PM – 6:00 PM Reception with Exhibitors
Friday, June 19 7:00 AM – 8:00 AM Breakfast with the Faculty
Creating a Pediatric Health Home	Participants in a small group setting will learn what is required to build a successful pediatric health home from a practicing physician	Scott Schams, MD
Practical Tips to Improve Medication Adherence and Outcomes in Diabetes	Participants in a small group setting will learn successful strategies for improving medication adherence and outcomes in chronic diseases with an emphasis on	Marie Brown, MD

	care of diabetic patients
Practical Tools for Engaging Patients and Families in Their Care	Participants in a small group setting will learn tools and successful methods to engage patients and families in their healthcare	Christine Bechtel
Using Data to Improve Care	Participants in a small group setting will learn effective methods for utilizing multiple data sources to improve the care of individual patients as well as populations of patients	Larry Holly, MD
Chronic Care Management Coding: How to get Paid for Managing Care	Participants in a small group setting will learn the requirements for Medicare's new chronic care management code and will learn how to organize processes to utilize this code	Elaine Skoch, RN, MN
8:15 AM – 9:15 AM Plenary session: Got Transition: Essential Tools for the Transition from Adolescent Medicine to Adult Health Care	Participants will learn about the importance for adolescents and young adults of a structured transition from pediatric to adult medicine practice and will learn about examples of successful transition	Peggy McManus
9:30 AM – 10:30 AM Breakout Sessions
Population Management – An Essential Tool for Effective Patient Management	Participants will gain knowledge about the importance of effective population management to improve outcomes for all patients in the practice.	Karen Kennedy Tricia Nguyen, MD
Direct Primary Care Model	Participants will learn about a new model of primary care practice in which patients pay a small subscription fee to have enhanced access to the practice's physicians and other team members	Chris Larson, DO
Best Practices in Care Transition	Participants will learn about the importance of improving transitions of	Vanessa Andow, Moderator Dora Vela

	care from one care setting to another and will learn from successful programs that have improved care transitions.	Mae Centeno, DNP Tim Garson, MD
Comprehensive Medication Management to Improve Patient Outcomes	Participants will learn strategies for optimizing patient outcomes/ engagement and reducing cost by integrating CMM- the emerging role practice-based clinical pharmacists can play in vastly improving provider satisfaction and efficiency	Terry McInnis, MD
Best Practices for Engaging Patients and Families in their Care	Participants will gain knowledge about the best methods to engage their patients and families in their care to improve satisfaction, adherence and outcomes.	Christine Bechtel
Update on the 1115 Texas Healthcare Transformation Waiver: Integrating behavioral health services into primary care settings	Participants will learn about successful Medicaid 1115 waiver projects that have integrated behavioral health services into primary care to improve access to care for Medicaid recipients and under-insured and uninsured Texans.	Katherine Sanchez, LSW, PhD – moderator Madhukar Trivedi, MD Craig Kovacevich
GotTransition? Practical tools for improving the transition of adolescents and youth into adult medical practices	Participants will gain knowledge about best practices in helping youth and adolescents (especially those with special healthcare needs) transition to adult medicine practices	Manda Hall, MD – moderator Peggy McManus Carol Harvey Rachel Jew
10:45 AM – 11:45 PM Breakout Sessions Repeat
12:00 PM – 1:30 PM Closing Plenary Luncheon: Primary Care: Where are we and where we should be going	Participants will gain knowledge of the successes of the patient-centered medical home movement since its inception and challenges to widespread adoption of the model that remain.	Paul Grundy, MD